Homecoming Celebration - July 21st

Our Homecoming celebration this year will be on Sunday, July 21st. Please try to attend if you can. We always have a good time singing, socializing, and eating.

This year we will not be having a speaker, but the T's are expected to be back to lead us in singing, as well as demonstrating their own singing skills. I always enjoy listening to them. If any of you would like to do a solo or a group-sing, please make sure to volunteer.

After the singing we will be sharing dinner, so bring enough for yourself and a little extra. We will be eating inside, so it is sure to be nice and cool.

Sunday, July 21, 2002 Agenda
10:15am	Trinity Methodist Church Cemetery Association Meeting
10:45am	Singing – The T's (plus the audience, solos, and groups)
11:45am	Dinner (bring food for your family and a little extra)

Annual Cemetery Association Meeting

Prior to the Homecoming celebration on July 21st we will have our annual Trinity Methodist Church Cemetery Association meeting. We will be going over the financial matters of the Association, electing officers whose terms expire, and discussing anything else that comes up. The meeting will begin at 10:15 AM so please try to attend.

Missing Persons

For the December 2001 newsletter, the Post Office returned six as having an invalid address. So.... unless I get new addresses for these people, I'll have to drop them from the mailing list:

- Nell Bailey
- Dr. Robert C. Bowling
- Angie & John Hammond
- Rev. Billy Develin
- Davis & Lisa Kile
- Thomas Boykin

If any of you have the current address on any of these, please let me know so that I can update my mailing list. My contact information appears on the next page.

New Addresses

For those of you that live in Smith County and have Route/Box addresses, the E-911 office has assigned you a new address that corresponds to your street/road location. I need to update the mailing list for all these changes, so for those of you affected, I'd appreciate it if you would send me your new mailing address.

On April 17th Board member Davis Bailey lost consciousness due to bleeding in his brain and remains in University Hospital in Jackson. We hope and pray that he is able to recover and join us for Homecoming this year. Please keep him and his family in your prayers.
